JAMES ALLAN GIBSON,)	(WO- Do Not Publish)
a/k/a JIMMY GIBSON)

PRELIMINARY ORDER OF FORFEITURE

WHEREAS, in the forfeiture allegation of the indictment in the above case, the United States sought forfeiture of specific property,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. As a result of the guilty verdict on Count 1 of the indictment, for which the Government sought forfeiture pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924 and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), the defendant shall forfeit to the United States: all firearms and ammunition involved in the commission of the violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 922(g)(1).

2. The Court has determined that the following firearm and ammunition are subject to forfeiture pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 924 and Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c); that the defendant had an interest in such firearm and ammunition; and, that the United States has established the requisite nexus between such firearm and ammunition and such offense:

One H & R, .22 caliber revolver, bearing serial number 481025 and .22 caliber ammunition (approximately 385 live rounds).

3. Upon the entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General is authorized to seize the above-listed firearm and ammunition and conduct any discovery proper in identifying, locating or disposing of the firearm and ammunition subject to forfeiture, in accordance with Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(3).

4. Upon entry of this Order, the United States Attorney General is authorized to commence any applicable proceeding to comply with statutes governing third party rights, including giving notice of this Order.

5. The United States shall publish notice of the Order and its intent to dispose of the firearm and ammunition in such a manner as the United States Attorney General may direct. The United States may also, to the extent practicable, provide written notice to any person known to have an alleged interest in the subject firearm and ammunition.

6. Any person, other than the above named defendant, asserting a legal interest in the subject firearm and ammunition may, within thirty days of the final publication of notice or receipt of notice, whichever is earlier, petition the court for a hearing without a jury to adjudicate the validity of his alleged interest in the subject firearm and ammunition, and for an amendment of the Order of Forfeiture, pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c) which incorporates Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(6).

7. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(3), this Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at the time of sentencing and shall be made part of the oral pronouncement of sentence and included in the written judgment in a criminal case. If no third party files a timely claim, this Order shall become the Final Order of Forfeiture, as provided by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(2).

8. Any petition filed by a third party asserting an interest in the subject firearm and ammunition shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the subject firearm and ammunition, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the subject firearm and ammunition, and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought.

9. After the disposition of any motion filed under Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(1)(A) and before a hearing on the petition, discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure upon a showing that such discovery is necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

10. The United States shall have clear title to the subject firearm and ammunition following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if no such petitions are filed, following the expiration of the period provided in Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(2), which is incorporated by Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c), for the filing of third party petitions.

11. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order and to amend it as necessary pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(e).

12. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the United States of America's Motion for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture (Doc. # 95) is GRANTED and that the Clerk of the Court shall note entry of this Order in writing on the Judgment in a Criminal Case and forward two certified copies of this Order to the United States Attorney's Office.

SO ORDERED this the 25th day of March, 2008.
